LT. GOVERNOR DARDENNE RECEIVES AWARD FROM LOUISIANA TRUST FOR HISTORIC PRESERVATION

The Louisiana Trust for Historic Preservation presented Lt. Governor Jay Dardenne with the 2011 Legislative Award at the Louisiana Preservation Conference this month in Leesville. The award is in appreciation for his dedication to preserving the cultural heritage and historic resources of Louisiana.

Lieutenant Governor Dardenne has been an advocate for historic preservation, even before becoming Lieutenant Governor and commissioner of the Louisiana Division of Historic Preservation. As Secretary of State he enhanced Louisiana's Old State Capitol by raising $6.2 million from private and public funds to support its exhibit redesign, including the Ghost of the Castle feature which preserves the unique role of Sarah Fowler Morgan in the history and preservation of the building.
